M. G. Lorraine Media announces new line of children's literature!

Dexter & Dixie's Grandparents Adventure

INDIANAPOLIS, IN, US | JUNE 2026: M. G. Lorraine Media announces the release of the first five book in the Dexter & Dixie's Grandparent Adventure series.

In the state of Indiana alone, there are over 80,000 grandparents in the primary parent role for their grandchildren. As an educator of 20 years and a fun-loving grandmother, M. G. Lorraine recognizes the importance of children seeing themselves in the literature and the world around them. In collaboration with kid co-authors, Zoey Hooten and Liam Nelson, M. G. brings light and insight into the world of Dexter and Dixie and their outings, adventures and relationships with their grandparents. This is a series of early reader chapter books.
