Buried secrets. Stolen antiquities. A woman who refuses to back down.
Attorney and antiquities specialist Jennifer Dorchester is accustomed to high-pressure cases but nothing prepares her for the disappearance of the legendary Belzoni Shabti, heirlooms entrusted to her clients and coveted by dangerous forces operating in the shadows of Luxor.
When an attempted abduction shatters the illusion of safety, Jennifer and elite security operative Greg Uberti are thrust into a deadly chase across Egypt. Their investigation leads them deep into the Tomb of Seti-I, where Jennifer overhears a chilling conspiracy and becomes trapped in pitch-black silence buried alive with the stolen relics.

As museum officials, international criminals, and a ruthless female leader close in, Jennifer must rely on her instincts, her training, and the man who has unexpectedly captured her heart. Greg will burn the world down to find her but saving Jennifer means defying powerful enemies who want her silenced forever.
